INTRODUCTION

In every nation there are some happenings which can be utilized for achieving educational objectives. An efficient teacher tries to find out those happenings and provides knowledge about them to the students. The teacher should select those events which are important and have broad outcomes and which have usefulness in social science teaching “Current events provide authentic learning experiences for students at all grade levels. In studying current events students are required to use a range of cognitive, affective, critical thinking and research skills”. –Mark Twain. The current events are that which have already been happened in the society and integrate the past with the present, but also reveals the relationship of specific events to the current scenes.
